Good Life Tampa Bay* Discovers the Italian Charm of *Donatello

In the journey to find the best that Tampa Bay has to offer, Good Life Tampa Bay TV Show discovers the charm of Old World Italy at the renowned Donatello restaurant.

March 10, 2009, Tampa, Florida - Good Life Tampa Bay, Tampa Bay's premier lifestyle TV show that reports on local flavor from the fast-growing Tampa Bay market, discovered the Donatello experience of traditional hospitality. The décor of stucco arches, tapestries, gold-leaf ceiling tiles, bouquets of roses on every table and the entire staff donning fine tuxedos creates a dining experience that is centered 'round warmth and romance.

Owners, Guido and Gino Tiozzo have been providing this type of Old World hospitality in the Bay area since 1984. They say their formula for success is based on two strong principles: the quality of food and service combined with tradition. These two simple, yet powerful, ingredients have kept Donatello on the top of the food chain for over 20 years in the Tampa Bay area.

The Good Life Tampa Bay crew sampled numerous Italian culinary creations and libations from the restaurant's menu and extensive wine list impressing the show's host, "H" John Mejia.

"One thing for sure," said Mejia, "Donatello [restaurant] will deliver you a consistent good life experience."
