Good Life Tampa Bay* Attends the “Good Life Experience” Finale Hosted by Sean “P. Diddy” Combs

Good Life Tampa Bay TV Show witnessed the grand finale of the “Good Life Experience” Super Bowl parties as only Sean “P. Diddy” Combs could accomplish.

January 18, 2010, St. Petersburg, Florida – Sean “P. Diddy” Combs hosted party number three of the “Good Life Experience” with his “Icons of the Good Life” celebration at The Venue entertainment complex. The energy was electric as celebrities, athletes and VIPs enjoyed an evening of glamour and extravagance, all in “P. Diddy” style. With a backdrop of ornate chandeliers, dimly lit VIP nooks, plush sofas, two dance floors and an exclusive sky box, this was the hottest party in Tampa Bay.

Good Life Tampa Bay, Tampa Bay’s premier lifestyle show that reports on local flavor from the fast-growing Tampa Bay market, was there to cover all of the action.

Held less than 24 hours to kickoff, guests strolled down the white carpet in style for the party finale of the “Good Life Experience,” a series of three charitable events hosted by Winky Wright, former boxing champion, Deion Sanders, former professional football player and Sean “P. Diddy” Combs, entertainer and entrepreneur.

The night was all about “positive energy” explained Combs.

He was joined in that positive energy by many supporters including Mary Murphy, “So You Think You Can Dance” judge; Nyasha Zimucha, Miss Africa USA 2009; D’Qwell Jackson, Cleveland Browns player; Jordan Sparks, American Idol; Brooke Richards, Playboy’s Miss December 1999; Stephanie Glasson, Playboy’s Miss July 2004; DeMarcus Ware, Dallas Cowboys player; Matt Stafford, Top 2009 NFL Draft Prospect; Will Castro, of the “Unique Whips” TV Show; Ryan Nece, former Tampa Bay Buc; Matt Garza, Tampa Bay Rays player; Anthony Fasano, Miami Dolphins player; Sandra “Pepa” Denton and Dwight Freeney, Indianapolis Colts player.

Good Life Tampa Bay was there to capture the electricity of the evening and the elements that only P. Diddy could bring.
