Good Life Tampa Bay Celebrates with Tammy Levent at her Charitable VIP Birthday bash

Good Life Tampa Bay TV Show was there to interview local Tampa Bay celebrities at Tammy Levent's birthday-bash-for-charity, supporting the Joshua House of Tampa Bay.

January 25, 2010, Tampa, Florida - Good Life Tampa Bay, Tampa Bay's premier lifestyle show that reports on local flavor from the fast-growing Tampa Bay market, featured in July the local entrepreneur and wedding guru-to-the-stars, Tammy Levent, at her "birthday-party-gone-charity" bash hosted at Saks Fifth Avenue. Proceeds from ticket sales and retail sales benefited the Joshua House of Tampa Bay and many local celebrities were there to celebrate and lend their support.

The well-known personalities who showed their support for the event included Steve and Julie Weintraub from the Gold & Diamond Source; Ian Beckles from 620 WDAE radio; Michael Pinson from The Pinson Foundation; Michael Stram from the Home Theatre Gallery and even an appearance by visiting Prince Mario-Max Schaumburg-Lippe of Austria.

The Good Life Tampa Bay crew was there to cover all the excitement and Levent's exclusive event had it all: cuisine donated by Roy's; music by Ann P, the Former Miss Tampa Bay; and top-shelf cocktails including a new drink in honor of Tammy herself called the "Tammytini."

"When everyone is having a hard time, let's do something that benefits [others]," said Tammy Levent. And according to Good Life Tampa Bay, a good life in Tampa Bay is all about giving back to others.
